

Single Sign-on with Microsoft Azure AD

Single sign on with Microsoft Azure AD can now be implemented on your website. This allows users to use their Microsoft authentication credentials to login instead of their username and password. Administrators can prevent specific email domain names from using Microsoft sign-on or force its use.

Refer to Microsoft Azure AD SSO for more information.