

Add Cost Centre for Whole Order

Managing budgets via cost centres is a critical aspect for some of your larger B2B customers. The cost centres feature has been extended. For any customer account, you can now set cost centre allocation to be against the whole order instead of every order line. This means the user need only enter a single cost centre per order.

See: Add Cost Centre for Whole Order.