Freight displayed without postcode in Guest Checkout

In some CopyGuest Checkout scenarios, the freight options widget was displaying charges before the user had input their postcode. This has been fixed; the freight options are now blank until the user inputs a postcode value to calculate charges on.