

Lucene index for Custom Catalogue only products

When building the Lucene Search Index, custom Catalogue Categories will be included so that if the user searches / browses for those categories when using it's respective category, the Lucene Search Results will now include them. Previously, such situations would result in no products being shown.