Full image clickable in Banner Slider

A new option has been added to the Banner Slider Widget, allowing you to specify whether the full image is clickable or not. This is useful in designs where the banner overlay is large or covers the center of the banner.

A larger clickable area can reduce frustration for your users.