Product Gallery widget for Quick View

The Product Gallery Widget, previously only available for the Product Detail template, is now able to be used in the Product Quick View popup. This means that as a user is checking out a product (without navigating away from the page they're on), they can watch videos as well as view images.